SUBJECT: Board Letter for January 2024

This month brings 2024 and a new term to MHCC. With the optimism that comes with a new year, we are hopeful about our future, fortified by enrollment trends, bond conversations, and innovations in programs and services. There is so much good work happening at the college, every day brings a new story of the success of our students and alumni.

On December 11, 2024, I had the honor of being a panelist at the 21st annual Leadership Summit, organized by the Oregon Business Council. With the theme “Think Big” our session focused on how we are creating new workforce development partnerships and supporting innovative models that will create an equitable, skilled workforce, that meets industry’s talent needs. The panel also included K.S. Venkatraman, Sr. Director, AI Computing, Nvidia; Mariah Robbins, VP Global People & Culture/VP, Operations, A-dec; Travis Reiman, Superintendent, Hillsboro School District; and Jonath Colon, Deputy Director of Economic Development, Centro Cultural, and was moderated by Anne Mersereau, VP, Human Resources, Diversity, Equity & Inclusion, PGE.

On the semiconductor front, the Biden-Harris administration’s announcement of the federal CHIPS and Science Act investment in Microchip was great news for our region, and our college. I was honored to participate in the press conference held January 5, 2024 at Microchip to celebrate the announcement. The $72 million grant brings all the semiconductor work full circle, beginning with the Semiconductor Competitiveness Taskforce in 2022.

In addition to working closely with Microchip and other semiconductor companies, to develop their current and future workforce, I am active in supporting state legislative efforts around higher education support for this industry. You will recall in the 2023 session, SB 4 passed to support growth in this sector, but the legislation fell short of funding the education and training components needed to address the talent pipeline. A bill is currently under development for the 2024 legislative session, to address the workforce recommendations of the Semiconductor Taskforce. The bill proposes to form a statewide industry advisory committee, develop a comprehensive statewide educational strategy, create the semiconductor talent sustaining fund, and allocate $30m in strategic investments, which includes $2.5m for MHCC specifically. I plan to be down in Salem on January 11, 2024 for Legislative Days, where I will join a cadre of college and university presidents, faculty, staff and student to stress the importance of funding education and training for the semiconductor industry.

Lastly, the OCCA executive committee has launched the hiring process of the new executive director with the search consultants. A recommendation on search committee members will be brought to the OCCA board for action on January 11, 2024. Our other conversations focused on ensuring broad stakeholder engagement in the process and being intentional on how we invite and include diverse perspectives and voices along the process.

Annual goal update

Diversity, equity, and inclusion

Work on the Equity Scorecard continues.

Community engagement

Board presentations continue. On December 20, 2023, the Fairview City Council and Corbett School District session were held, and the City of Cascade Locks is scheduled for January 8, 2024. Conversations continue with regard to school district presentations.

Bond campaign

The Bond Development Workgroup (BDW) has been formed, with their first meeting scheduled January 18, 2024. The BDW is an impressive mix of representatives from business, labor, and community-based organizations. The BDW will meet five times over the next three months, working to develop a set of projects to be shared with the community for input and feedback.

Accreditation

The college will appear before the Northwest Commission on Colleges and Universities (NWCCU) on January 31, 2024 in advance of their accreditation decision. Sergey Shepelov, Associate Vice President of Assessment and Institutional Effective, and I will be appearing on behalf of MHCC.

In closing, welcome to a new year, a new quarter, and the new opportunities that await us.

She provided an overview on current funding for the project, State ARPA funds that have been received to apply to the project, some possible strategies for the gap in funding, and a potential timeline to actually see an enclosure on the pool.

Charles George closed the update with a discussion on next steps to include timeline, project milestones, and next steps. Presenters also answered and responded to a question and comments from the Board.

A copy of the PowerPoint presentations is attached to the minutes.

2.3 Campus & Student Engagement Discussion

The Board discussed ways in which they wish to engage with the campus and students during the 2024 year. Some ideas that came from the discussion include:

- Hosting a table/ event for Board members to make themselves available to talk to students

2.4 Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion (DEI) Training

Traci Simmons provided a training to the board on Advancing Shared Equity Leadership – The Role of the Board of Education. This training was a retrospective for the work that has already been done, focusing on where the where the Board started and where the Board goes from here.

Simmons opened the training with some questions to guide the conversation:

- What is the role of the board in this work?
- How does the Board see itself in advancing organizational accountability for Diversity, Equity and, Inclusion (DEI) progress?
- Where do Board members see themselves in the strategic plan at the 50,000 ft view?
- Where does data and assessment of existing equity gaps come into view?

Board members were given a homework assignment to read an article, titled, ACE Shared Equity Leadership, and participated in an exercise where they ranked Practices by Position in Organizational Hierarchy (Senior-Level Roles, Mid-Level Roles, and Ground-Level Roles) within the following areas:

- Relational Practices (Building Trust, Cultivating Positive Relationships, Welcoming Disagreements and Tensions)
- Communication Practices (Using Language Intentionally, Setting Expectations, Listening)
- Practices That Challenge Status Quo (Diminishing Hierarchy, Questioning, Disrupting)
- Developmental Practices (Learning, Helping Others Learn, Modeling)
- Structural Practices (Hiring Diverse Leaders, Making Decisions with Systemic Lens, Creating Rewards and Incentives, Implementing New Approaches to Accountability)
- Foundational Practice (Understanding and Centering Students' Needs)

Simmons provided further questions to guide the conversation to include:

- Given your level of authority, what values or practices might be most salient for your role?
- Thinking about your place in the organizational hierarchy, how might you work collaboratively with others to advance equity?

To advance the discussion, Simmons discussed the value of data, in terms of using quantitative and qualitative data to assess impact of DEI strategies and DEI goal attainment, and the following questions were also posed:

- How do we establish baseline data to assess our progress to close persistent equity gaps by race and other markers of marginalization?
- What specific data and format is most useful to the board?

To wrap up the discussion Simmons posted the following final questions based on Instruction Being at the Core of What We Do:

- What is the role of the board to distill DEI imperatives to the faculty level?
- What questions should be asked?
- What kind of progress assessment is needed?
- How does qualitative data inform our progress and momentum?
- What structural changes and/ or rewards/ incentives could be designed to advance this work?

To close the training, Simmons answered questions from the Board and Speer posed a question to the group asking about preferences for further trainings on this topic at future work sessions. Consensus was reached to hold quarterly trainings on this topic during future work sessions. Speer stated that he would speak to Skari and Simmons for further planning.

A copy of the PowerPoint presentation is attached to the minutes.

Moving Forward

Coming out of Covid, we have not yet achieved
“business as usual”

- 50-meter pool opened in June 2022
- Indoor 25-yard pool opened in April 2023
- Full programming has been in place for only 6 months
- Children’s swim lessons have been the slowest to recover

Moving Forward

A large outdoor swimming pool at night, illuminated by bright overhead lights. The pool is divided into lanes by red and white lane lines. Numerous white tents are set up around the pool, suggesting an event or competition. The background shows a large building, possibly a gymnasium or community center, and some trees. The overall scene is dark, with the pool and tents being the primary light sources.

Advancing Shared Equity Leadership:

The Role of the Board of Education

Presented by: Traci Simmons

Where we started

June 17, 2020

The MHCC Board of Education affirms Black Lives Matter, stands with the victims of the recent tragic deaths of George Floyd, Ahmaud Arbery, and Breonna Taylor, the latest victims of a long history of violence towards people of color in this country, and commits itself to do the work necessary to end this centuries-long cycle in our country of systemic oppression, violence, and anti-Black racism. The board echoes President Skari, and we assert that racism and bigotry have no place at Mt. Hood Community College (MHCC). Mt. Hood is a place where all community members are welcomed to be part of our learning community. We acknowledge that the institution has significant work to do to advance diversity, equity, and inclusion, a central goal of the college's strategic plan. While many organizations are releasing statements, the MHCC Board has decided to instead release an action plan.

Where we started

The board, in partnership with the president, endorse the recommendations and counsel of the director of Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion, who has determined five broad areas of action needed to advancing diversity, equity, and inclusion (DEI):

1. Leadership through adoption of a college wide equity lens linked to the college mission.
2. Review of Human Resources policy and practice to assess barriers to building a diverse and inclusive college.
3. Focus on equity-minded instructional practice.
4. Use quantitative and qualitative data to assess impact of DEI strategies and DEI goal attainment.
5. Amplification of student and community voices to be responsive and center their needs, specifically our students and communities of color.

Mt. Hood Community College receives national equity award

By Meerah Powell (OPB)
Oct. 20, 2021 1:14 p.m.

The Association of Community College Trustees gave MHCC its Charles Kennedy Equity Award for the college's efforts to address racism and poverty in its community

Life During Covid

- Ramped up support for students' basic needs
- Implemented the board approved equity lens
- Addressed concerns of faculty, staff, and students around safety from an equity perspective
- Continued regular DEI engagements and learning despite being in the same room

Strategic Plan Development and Steering

- Brought the college and community together to develop a future vision and strategic plan for the organization
- Named equity as a high value for the institution and made that the focus of our planning process
- Collaborated with internal and external stakeholders
- Continued the work to align all internal planning processes

Where do we go from here?

Strategic Plan Year 2 implementation

Questions to guide the conversation:

What's the role of the board?

How does the board see itself in advancing organizational accountability for DEI progress?

Where do board members see themselves in the strategic plan at the 50,000 ft view?

Where does data and assessment of existing equity gaps come into view?

Your Homework: ACE Shared Equity Leadership

“ground-level or mid-level leaders may have limited abilities to enact some of the structural practices such as creating new rewards and incentive structures for shared equity leadership (SEL), whereas senior leaders have the power and authority—even the responsibility—to do these things. In this section, we first describe the importance of senior leaders prioritizing the practice of diminishing hierarchy, and then we will outline the ways that senior leaders are well positioned to take responsibility for the structural practices needed to enact SEL. Senior leaders also play a significant role in modeling some of the SEL values that are countercultural to traditional ways of operating within our institutions such as vulnerability and humility, as well as embodying the values of transparency and accountability.”

Questions to Guide Us:

Worksheet exercise and conversation

Given your level of authority, what values or practices might be most salient for your role? Thinking about your place in the organizational hierarchy, how might you work collectively with others to advance equity?

The Value of Data

- “Use quantitative and qualitative data to assess impact of DEI strategies and DEI goal attainment.”
 - How do we establish baseline data to assess our progress to close persistent equity gaps by race and other markers of marginalization?
 - What specific data and format is most useful to the board?
 - Examples: retention, completion, diversity of students and staff, admissions to limited-entry programs, success in gatekeeper courses

Instruction is the core of what we do

- “Focus on equity-minded instructional practice”
 - What is the role of the board to distill DEI imperatives to the faculty level?
 - What questions should be asked?
 - What kind of progress assessment is needed?
 - How does qualitative data inform our progress and momentum?
 - What structural changes and/or rewards/incentives could be designed to advance this work?

So what's next for the Board?

What is the role of the Board of Education for advancing DEI within the framework of Shared Equity Leadership?

2.0 PUBLIC INPUT

There was public comment from:

James Barker, MHCC Custodian, and his daughter, Ireland Barker, former MHCC Student – discussed an ongoing enrollment issue between the student's high school and the college.

Sarah Williams accompanied by Cheryl Johnson and Jenna Hunt – representing the MHCC Faculty Association and the Faculty Bargaining group, discussed that they had two all-day bargaining sessions, where much was accomplished, and that the faculty have invested nine-thousand hours of bargaining, but still have twelve articles in their contract that are still outstanding and not resolved. At this point they do not want to continue bargaining beyond spring 2024 and their goal is for administration to back them in signing an article for mediation to take place.

3.0 REPORTS

3.1 Correspondence

There was no correspondence.

3.2 Electric Vehicle (EV) Work/ Efforts

Charles George and Troy Builta presented on the electric vehicle (EV) work efforts that have transpired to date to get charging stations on campus. Builta, MHCC's Building Information Specialist/ Sustainability Coordinator, worked tirelessly for several years to get approval for the Portland General Electric (PGE) Electric Vehicle grant and the grant was finally approved and received, which has provided funding for some charging stations. George shared an overview on the planning and installation process, stakeholders involved (including students), pricing, and answered questions from the Board.

A copy of the PowerPoint presentation is attached to the minutes.

3.3 Bond Update

Skari provided a bond update to include that the comprehensive facilities plan is in its final stages and there will be three internal campus meetings for input on the projects to define priorities that will be provided to the college's bond consultants and Bond Development Committee. These meetings will take place on January 11th and 12th, 2024. The Bond development committee is in the process of being formed and will consist of twenty-twenty-five individuals, primarily external, but will include internal constituents as well. The group will have five meetings early 2024; two in January, two in February, and one in March. The purpose of the group is to look at the projects and input that comes from campus. The first round of community polling, conducted by one of our consultants, the Patinkin Group, will allow for Patinkin to build a recommended bond, based on polling results, by March, which will go out to the public for comment, to get a sense of what projects and dollars may be supported. Pending results, the Board was informed that they may have a proposal before them at the June 12, 2024 Board meeting, to be on the ballot by June 24, 2024, and there may also be a situation where there will be no action taken, if the polling is not showing as being favorable for the bond. Skari answered a question from Stroud, in regards to community engagement outreach between now and June 2024.

6.0 CLOSING REPORTS

6.1 ASMHCC Representative

Javier Estrada (ASMHCC President) – reported on ASMHCC activities to include:

This week our team has been busy working on finals and finishing out this term strong.

This past month ASMHCC had the pleasure of volunteering with a local organization the Kindness Farm which is a first-generation immigrant, refugee, and queer lead non-profit farm in SE Portland. Eight team members spent the morning helping with weeding and winterizing the farm. It was a great experience to be able to give back to our local community.

ASMHCC also adopted 2 families in need for the MHCC Something Wonderful Project lead by MHCC Faculty member Katrinia McNeal. We were able to drop off the family's gifts yesterday.

Finally, ASMHCC and the MDRC hosted 4 events last week to help student distress and prepare for their finals this week. On Monday the MDRC hosted a guided meditation and we ended the day with a nature walk lead by the forestry club. Finally, Barney Pantry Coordinator Steve Herff lead a planting activity. On Tuesday, ASMHCC had a fun event where students could play games in the student union, got to make their own waffles at a DIY waffle bar, and got to get out their frustrations by smashing plates outside the student union. On Wednesday, ASMHCC hosted a holiday craft event where students got to color, make holiday cards, make snow globes, snowmen, or wreaths, and make gingerbread houses. We ended Wednesday with some conversation around the fireplace lead by ASMHCC President Javier Estrada for students to reflect on how the term went. We wrapped up last week with our final fitness event lead by our Health & Recreation Event Coordinator Jonny where students got to test their fitness by seeing who could dead hang the longest. The top 5 students got a gift card. All in all, our prep week events served almost 200 students.

6.2 Advisory Representatives

John Hasegawa (FTFA) – did not attend.

Michael Flores (CEA) – shared updates for CEA to include:

The CEA would like to engage more with the Board and wanted to know what the Board would like to hear from the association through their monthly updates. Flores provided his contact information for feedback and the Board also discussed inviting the CEA to a future work session for further dialog around the issue.

Marilyn Pitts (PTFA) – shared updates for the PTFA to include:

A congratulatory shout out to the MHCC District Communications department for their marketing work outside the college. 6.3 Executive Leadership

John Hamblin (Student Development) – shared the following updates:

The Board report, included in this month's Board packet, was incomplete and that the Division will include additional items the following month to cover for this. Next, she provided an update on the Oregon Community College Association (OCCA) Board Director search and that OCCA has hired Hank Henry, a search consultant firm based in Oregon who do national searches. OCCA is finalizing the job description and putting together a search committee, which should kick off January 2024. The position is expected to be filled by June 2024.

Following, Skari mentioned that the MHCC food pantry has been expanding and there is a future option for the Board/ President's Office to adopt one of the pantry garden boxes for next year. If Board members are interested in participating they are encouraged to let Skari know. In addition, she noted that personal produce from home gardens can also be donated to the pantry to be made available to students.

She provided an end of fall term 2023 enrollment update stating that the college is up 7.5% from last fall at this time, and for winter term, up 11.5% from last winter 2022.

SUBJECT: MONTHLY FINANCIAL REPORT

This report reflects 2023/24 activity through November.

Revenues:

MHCC's General Fund operations are funded in fiscal year 2023/24 52.7% ($38.9M) from the State, 24.5% ($18M) from tuition and fees, 20.4% ($15M) from property taxes, and 2.4% ($1.8M) from other revenues.

- State support revenue is received quarterly in August, October, January, and April. In the last year of each biennium, the April payment is deferred until July. The amount budgeted for 2023-2024 reflects Mt. Hood's estimated share of the governor's requested budget level of $744 million, based on available information at the time of adoption. The Oregon legislator approved $796 million for the community college support fund, which includes $12.5 million for new student support and success elements in 2024/25. This increased funding level is expected to generate about $1 million more than budgeted.
- The counties distribute property tax revenue monthly, with the most significant payments received in November and December. The 2023-2024 adopted budget includes a 2% increase in property tax revenue over 2022-2023.
- Fall term tuition and fee revenues are 11% ($544,280) more compared to November 2022. Enrollment in tuition-bearing courses for the fall term increased by 8.7% (93 students) over this time last year. Summer and fall terms combined tuition and fee revenue year to date is 11.9% ($749,459) above November 2022. Current year enrollment is forecasted to increase by 4.5%.

Expenditures:

As of November 30, year-to-date expenditures were $1,829,157 (7.8%) above this time last year; however, they meet forecast expectations. As an educational institution, most costs are incurred between September and June.

- Salaries are not paid evenly over the year because most full-time faculty, who comprise about 50% of total salary expense, work ten months and are paid over twelve months. Therefore, three months of faculty salary is recorded in June, and Extra-teach is calculated and paid in June. Budget amounts include step increases, cost of living increases, and longevity for eligible employees.
- Fringe and tax costs are paid based on a percentage of salary, so the ratio of the remaining budget is similar to salaries, as expected.
- Debt Service is paid according to a prescribed schedule, with payments occurring in December and June.
- Transfers to other Funds occur in June and include budgeted amounts of $87,292 for aquatic center support and $400,000 for facilities capital projects.

GLOSSARY

Revenues:

State Support includes funds received through the Community College Support Fund allocated to each of the 17 community colleges in Oregon. Funding allocations are based on student full-time equivalent (SFTE) and a growth management component. The amount budgeted for 2023-2024 reflects Mt. Hood's estimated share of the biennial state support amount of $795 million.

Property Taxes include current and prior year taxes assessed at a permanent rate of .4917 per $1,000 of assessed value for Multnomah, Clackamas, and Hood River Counties. Current year property taxes are a component in the community college revenue allocation formula for State Support.

Tuition and Fees include all tuition, course fees, and instructional service fees. Tuition for 2023/24 is $122.00 per credit hour recorded in the General Fund. A technology fee of $7.00 per credit hour and an Associated Student Government (ASG) fee of $4.25 per credit hour is in addition to the tuition rate and recorded in separate funds. A College Service Fee of $3.50, a Safety and Security Access Fee of $3.50, and an Instructional Access Fee of $3.50 are all assessed on a per-credit basis in addition to the tuition rate for up to 15 credits.

Other Revenues include rental charges, interest earnings, grant and foundation indirect cost recoveries, transfers in, and sales revenue.

Expenditures:

Salaries consist of the wages and salaries paid to all employees from all employee groups.

Health Care consists of the employer-paid portion of medical, dental, and vision insurance premiums.

Fringe/Taxes are all other employer-paid fringe costs and include PERS (25%), Social Security (6.2%), Early Retirement (3.5%), Medicare (1.45%), and Long-term disability, life, workers' compensation, unemployment insurance, statewide transit tax and tax-sheltered annuity payments (combined 1.3%).

Materials & Supplies consists of all non-personnel costs such as supplies, repair of equipment, printing, and photocopying, contracted services, travel, and capital outlays.

Grants in Aid/Tuition Waivers include tuition and fee waivers for students as established by board policy, as well as staff tuition waivers as established by collective bargaining agreements.

Debt Service consists of principal and interest payments on general long-term debt.

Transfers to Other Funds represent the required general fund match for the federal financial aid programs and transfers from the general fund for facilities capital projects.

US Bank Visa Purchasing Cards

Visa Purchasing Cards used by Head Start staff are monitored monthly at several levels. Visa logs and receipts are prepared by card holder and reviewed monthly by supervisors who check for allowability of the purchases. The Financial Specialist in the Head Start office reviews the logs to ensure accuracy and the Head Start director signs off on each log. The business office does a final review for accuracy. Performance standards also require the Head Start Policy Council and MHCC Board of Education to review all VISA purchases.

Todas las compras para el programa realizadas por el personal de Head Start a través de las tarjetas Visa son supervisadas mensualmente en diferentes niveles. La hoja de registro de la tarjeta visa y recibos son preparados por la persona responsable y luego es revisado mensualmente por los supervisores para verificar dichas transacciones. La Especialista de Finanzas de la oficina de Head Start revisa las hojas de registro para asegurar la exactitud y luego la Directora de Head Start firma cada hoja de registro. La oficina de negocios hace la revisión final. También se especifica en las Normas de Desempeño que todas las compras para el programa de las tarjetas Visa, requieren de la revisión de Policy Council Head Start y de la Directiva de Educación de MHCC.

Кредитные карты Visa используются сотрудниками Head Start для покупок по работе и контролируются ежемесячно на нескольких уровнях. Записи затрат регистрируются вместе с корешками от чеков владельцем карты и рассматриваются на ежемесячной основе управляющими, которые проверяют законность покупок. Финансовый специалист в офисе Head Start проверяет выше указанную документацию на окуратность которую в последствии подписывает директор Head Start. После чего бизнес офис коледжа ведет еще одну проверку на окуратность, правомерность и законность, что в конечном итоге предоставляется на рассмотрение членам Совета Стратегии и Совету Директоров МНСС

COMMUNITY PARTNERSHIPS

Our families benefited from numerous partnerships we have fostered with community agencies. 164 families received referrals to holiday and winter resources outside of the 1200 people that attended the Winter Festival.

Our Maywood staff became Winter Fairies for a family through Something Wonderful. Since 1994, every year the college has organized the Something Wonderful event, where staff adopts a family who has gotten registered to receive help with some winter items like jackets, shoes, mittens, toys and gifts for the holidays, food, and other house supplies. Families who have registered through the college could be from the community, students, or even from our HS/EHS program and will be from any size.

The Maywood Head Start team came together to overflow the family with tons of gifts.

The little girl, was so excited she couldn't contain herself! She was jumping up and down, clapping her hands, going in circles. The little boy, was all smiles as he helped unload the presents under the tree. He just kept saying "wow!" with each load we brought in!

Childcare Partnerships (CCP) Report

Early Head Start Child Care Partnerships (EHS-CCP) – layered funding enhances quality and stability in community childcare partner sites.

In EHS-CCP, the use of multiple funding sources or layered funding is meant to ensure that the needs of children, families, staff, and programs are met while adhering to the Office of Head Start (OHS) and Oregon Department of Early Learning and Care (DELIC) standards and requirements. Equity awareness and strategies to enhance, sustain, and rebuild the early childhood workforce are also essential to our partnership efforts. Maximizing the use of other revenue sources ensures sufficient funding to our partner sites, allowing them to collaborate in delivering comprehensive services for families and children and enhancing EHS-CCP funds' impact.

Financing the total cost of quality comprehensive care for young children in early childhood programs may be supported by a variety of resources, including:

- Childcare subsidies and parent co-payments
- Private parent fees for children not enrolled in EHS-CCP
- Private scholarships, including employer-supported subsidies
- Child and Adult Care Food Program (CACFP) reimbursements
- Local community funds
- Foundation funding
- Public pre-K or other local education agency (LEA) funding
- Head Start and Early Head Start funds
- Donated in-kind resources of goods and services

During this model's planning and initial implementation, the OHS instructed EHS-CCP programs to consider three layers of funding in our partnerships – including both state and federal funds.

Layer One– our childcare partner sites collect Employment Related Daycare (ERDC), Temporary Assistance to Needy Families (TANF), and DELIC-determined co-pay amounts from families. The EHS-CCP program doesn't have much control over these funds other than monitoring to ensure we can report on the impact of a more stabilized workforce and affordable childcare for families and to ensure families are accessing self-sufficiency resources/programs effectively.

Layer Two –roughly two-thirds of our monthly stipend per child is to ensure that our partners can actively meet our EHS-CCP and OHS requirements – including providing diapers, wipes, and food to children while in care; hiring additional staff to meet enhanced staff-to-child ratios and age-appropriate group sizes, and to ensure teaching staff meet the minimum qualifications for their roles. Our partner sites can also use these funds as incentives or wage increases for staff and to provide training and professional development. When funding levels allow, other program enhancements are also drawn from these funds, such as for classroom materials, minor renovations to classrooms and playgrounds, and to meet health and safety regulations.

Our partners can also use these funds to temporarily cover lost ERDC subsidies or co-payments when families cannot make them independently. Roughly one-third of our monthly stipend is meant to be set aside by our partners for this purpose – many of whom create a “subsidy scholarship fund” to support families in these instances.

Layer Three– these funds are used explicitly for EHS-CCP-specific services and staff positions and indirect supports to families such as bus passes, emergency clothing, etc. – things that help reduce barriers to full participation in our program services and attendance at the childcare sites.

BMC is now in the content planning phase for the Spring 2024 College plus Community publication, which will highlight stories like our new and improved dental hygiene clinic, the mentioning of our now-open planetarium, and continue our "Faces of the Strategic Plan" series.

BMC developed the final pieces for the marketing go-kits, which will provide internal stakeholders with marketing collateral as they attend community events. The kits include viewbooks, flyers, pens, stickers, lanyards and an option branded backdrop if desired.

College Advancement and District Communications Update

The BMC team is also working on a one pager for our external community members, a report card for how we are doing on outcomes related to our Strategic Plan.
